In connection with Misc. 186 Writ of Detention.

At 9.55 p.m. 13-5-35, C.P.C. 1464 brought the 1st. accused to the station and stated that he had arrested him at 9.45 p.m. even date, on Bulkal Road near Lay Road. At the time of his arrest, the 1st accused was seen to throw away a pieces of chalk which was recovered by the C.P.C.

The undersigned and C.D.C's 323 and 320 made enquiries and ascertained the following:-

C.P.C. 1464 was on duty on No. 3 Post, situated on Bulkal Road near Lay Road, when at about 9.45 p.m. 13-5-35, the C.P.C. saw the 1st accused together with 3 other male Chinese chalking something on a nearby wall.

The C.P.C. investigated, and at his approach all 4 men ran away, but the C.P.C. managed to effect the arrest of the 1st accused. On looking at the wall upon which the men had been busily writing in white chalk, the C.P.C. discovered them to be communistic slogans, so he therefore took the 1st accused into custody.

C.D.C. 320 was sent to copy the slogans written on the wall, they proved to be as follows:-

- (1) "Down with the Koo Min Tang" (打倒國民党 )
(2) "Come forth and protect the masses" (起来, 起来维生 )
(3) "Down with the Fascists" (打倒法西斯 )

REPORT

Date May 18, 1935.

Subject Arrest of four Communists in Yulin Road District on May 13 and 15, 1935.

Made by D.S. Sansom. Forwarded by B. S. Sansom

Further interrogation of the four accused in this case has failed to elicit any additional useful information. They will re-appear before the Court on May 21, 1935 when they will be charged with <sup>Propagating Communism</sup> under Article 6 of the Law Governing the Punishment of Persons who commit acts injurious to the Republic of China.

The four men admit being members of the Social Scientists' League, an auxiliary organ of the Communist Party, working under the direction of one named Lee (李) who has not been located by the Police.

The work of these men centred around the opening about two months ago of the Oriental Morning & Evening (Primary) School at No. 477 Holung Road for the specific purpose of propagating Communism among students. Aside from this, all four men have on one of two occasions, some of them on both occasions, chalked slogans on walls in Yulin Road District.

A list of addresses found among literature seized at the Oriental Morning & Evening (Primary) School is supposed to have been drafted 3 years ago by a teacher named Lieu Kwei Yuan (刘桂元), who has left Shanghai. The list includes the 3rd accused in this case, under the alias of Tseu Fong Kwei (周芳奎). The arrested men disclaim any knowledge of the others. Enquiries regarding the Settlement addresses are in progress.

The Public Safety Bureau are investigating a number of addresses in Chinese controlled territory of adherents of the Social Scientists' League, given by the four accused.

I was born at Penang, Malaya, on the 18th day of the 6th moon, the 20th year of the Chinese Republic (1919). My father is a native of Hangchow, Chekiang Province. He and my father-in-law both have pawn-shops at Penang.

In the 21st year of the Chinese Republic (1932) I went to Kwangtung. Later I came to Shanghai and took piano lessons at the Yihedin Piano (German) School and also at the home of a certain Chinese. I wish to be a musician and have no belief in communism. However, I was involved as most of my friends are of communistic inclined. For this reason I have a very clear knowledge of the various working systems and the clothing usually worn by members of the Communist Party, etc. It is true that I had not in the past obstructed the Communist Party, but I shall be revenged on them in the future. Let bygones be bygones; from now on I will serve the Kuomintang under the guidance of the Three Principles of the People, and will do my best to uproot the Communist Party and atoms for my past actions. This is no threat. Should I have an opportunity I will go to various streets (because some members of the Communist Party can still be recognized by me) and would proactively join their Party. Then I would expose them.

Regarding the recent news, I will write another report. The Social Activities' League is an auxiliary organ of the Communist Party. Our relations with the KMT were established through the Red Cross, which was built by the Red Cross, during the time of 1924-1925. I don't and one later when the person known as Li (李) (a member of the Standing Committee of the League in question) had conversation with the two aforementioned. One week later, they asked me to join them. Tsang Tse Ling in particular persuaded me with attractive words. To speak the truth, I hesitated all the time, because I had an idea that the Social Scientists' League propagated Communism, and I can say definitely that Communism cannot save China; it can only make her decadent. But at that time I had another thought existing in my mind, namely, to join the Social Scientists' League and betray it. However, before my object of securing addresses of members of the various organs of the League could be attained, I was arrested by the police.

Yee Tseng Soong (易生松), 1st accused, is a member of the Communist Party. He often goes out together with Tsang Tse Ling to distribute handbills and to chalk communistic slogans. One day he forced me to give him 20 cents silver with which to purchase a reactionary publication entitled "Rise Up."

Under the guidance of the Kuomintang, I will strongly oppose Communist activities in China. I have voluntarily reported to the police an address of a Workers' Supplementary School, which was opened by the 1st accused, Yee Tseng Soong. The teaching at the school was undertaken by one Miss Wang (王). I learned about this school when I was asked by Yee Tseng Soong to lend him a bed for the female teacher.

In August last year I resided in Haig Li (海格里) and there prepared myself for the entrance examination of a political school this year. At that time I met by chance a fellow-countryman named Tsang Yung (張用), a student of the Chinan University, Chenju, who is a member of the Social Scientists' League. He furnished me with various books on social science, and some pamphlets published by the League.

In October I removed my home to an un-numbered house located at the back entrance of the Kwang Hua (光華) University, and Tsang Yung gave me more books and pamphlets.

At the end of January this year I became a teacher of English at the Young Zung (中正) Vocational School through the recommendation of one of my friends. I left there at the end of March owing to differences in views with the school principal, and voluntarily established the Oriental Morning & Evening School. No books and pamphlets were received by me from the League after I had become a teacher at the Young Zung Vocational School, and my connections with Communist organizations were therefore severed.

Unexpectedly Siao Tseng (小曾) said to me, "We have no prospects. We are young men and should enjoy a political life. Can you obtain some connections?" I then told him that I had <sup>had</sup> relations with the Communist Party for several months, but that I could write to our countryman named Wong (張) at the Chinan University who would probably obtain connections for us. As a

during the spring vacation, I sent letters to him and Ho wei Fung (胡惠斧 Tsang Yung's schoolmate) asking them to connect me with the League.

At the end of April one named Li (李) came up to our school on two occasions. Later, he sent to us a copy of a pamphlet issued by the League, books entitled "First Step to Leninism" and "War Tactics" and also the reference books and periodicals which were all seized by the police on the night of 13.5.35. Li instructed us how to carry out communist activities among workers.

In August, 1933 I was working as a Communist among workers of various cotton mills in the Eastern and Western Districts of Shanghai. Between September and October I was introduced to D.I. Kuh Pao Hua by my friends So Ning Sung (沙銀生) and Li Hui Poeng (李海萍 C.D.C.280) and was then employed as an informer with S. 2, Special Branch.

Later, I gave information concerning a Communist base in Hsin Hwa Li (新華里), Pingliang Road, and 3 Communists were arrested. The first, named Lee King Sun (黎金山), was sentenced to 5 years' imprisonment, and the other two to 2 years and a half imprisonment each. In this connection I was given by D.I. Kuh Pao Hua a reward of $50 through the hands of the C.D.C. Li Hui Poeng.

In December 1933 about 100 Communists gathered at the Chung Hui Tong Benevolent Institution on Pakhei Road and demanded that rice be issued to them. I passed this information to C.D.C. Li Hui Poeng who in turn transmitted it to D.I. Kuh Pao Hua. The crowd was eventually dispersed by the police.

From that time up to the beginning of this year I haven't met any Communist. On April 7 or 8, 1934, I went to study at the Oriental Morning & Evening School, Nanking Road and began to meet Wang Chi Ming (王赤明), Chen Tuan Hui (陳土輝), and Yang Kee Ming (張老明). After having studied at this school for some time, I found that they were all members of the Communist Party. Later, I studied Communist thought on walls on the occasions, but the wall

Clerk Chiang King Yung

My name is Tsang Tse Ling (張志慶), age 21, native of Shanghai, residing with my mother Tsang Tsoo Ss (張同氏) at an un-numbered house <sup>opposite</sup> adjoining No. 477 Holung Road.

I was educated at the Tung Wei (同惠) Primary School, French Concession, and at the Yangtzepec Social Centre, No. 84 Yangtzepec Road, where I studied for 6 and 2 years respectively. I left the latter school at the age of 17, and joined the Communist Party through the introduction of a male named Wee (吳). I haven't seen him for the past 2 years. The Communist Party through a member named Wong arranged for me to take over the latter's post as principal in the King Sung (民聲) Primary School located in the Daung Sung Li (大成里), Tsu Ka Ba Road, near Lingchen Road. There were about 30 pupils in the school of ages ranging between 10 and 20. Two other teachers named Kou Yu Ming (邱雨明) and Kee (徐), a female, assisted me. This school had been established by the Communist Party for 6 months before I obtained my appointment. Pupil fees were sixty cents per month. Our object was to spread communist propaganda among the pupils whilst giving other lessons. I received no pay from the Party and had to submit on the fees received from pupils. The school closed down after I had been employed there for 3 months, because Yangtzepec Police Station had been informed of our activities. The police raided the school (in 1933) and succeeding in arresting an-arresting Kou Yu Ming aforementioned. The female teacher and myself absconded.

In 1933 I severed my connections with the Communist Party and obtained a job as mess-cook on an American warship named "Smith-Thomson" (destroyer No. 212). I left this job after 4 months service and became unemployed for 6 months, being supported by my mother who derives money from land owned by her.

In 1934, from March to May, I was employed as a mess-cook on American destroyer No. 222. From May till January of this year I was again unemployed.

With the knowledge of English acquired aboard American warships I then (January, 1935) became a teacher of English at the Tsung Yung Vocational Middle School (忠興職業中學) located in the Tsung Yung Li, Tsu Ka Ba Road. I obtained the post on my own initiative. Through lack of school funds I had to resign in February.

Two other teachers were forced to resign with me, namely Wong Jih Ning (王吉寧) and Tsoo Tsoo Ning (蘇子寧), (the 2nd, 3rd accused in this case). Together we established the Oriental Morning & Evening School, located at No. 477 Keling Road, during February, 1935. The school was opened without any communist influence as far as I am aware, and was financed by the 3rd accused to the extent of $400. This individual stated that he had obtained $300 from his wife, which money she had remitted to her from her parents at Peiping. Two weeks after the school had been established the 3rd accused instructed us to continue communist activities. A few days later he brought along a girl named Lee (李) .

who is a member of the Communist Party. Lee instructed myself and the 3rd accused through the medium of the 2nd accused to chalk communist slogans on walls, etc. Communist literature was brought to the school by the 2nd accused. None of it was distributed outside of the school by us. Six pupils age 7 or 8 years attended the school at a fee of 20 coppers to 40 cents a month.

Yee Teeng Goong (易正光), 1st accused, has been known to me for 4 years. He is a member of the Communist Party. He was with us at the Dung Tung School, where he sold stationery to the pupils. Later, he went with us to the Oriental Morning & Evening School.

Since we opened the last mentioned school we have chalked slogans on walls on two different occasions. The first time, on about May 6, 1935, we used a wall behind the Sacred Heart Hospital on Ningkue Road. Five of us participated, namely, the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd accused, myself and another known as Ho (何). On the second occasion, 4 of us participated, namely, the 1st and 2nd accused, myself and Ho whilst we were in the act a Chinese policeman saw us. I have met Ho on many occasions but I have never been to his home and have no idea of his whereabouts.

My name is Yee Tseng Soong (易七松) alias Lau Hoo (老九) age 26, native of Anhwei. My father was a farmer; he died six years ago, while my mother is living at Weiweilee (徽縣), Lu-tsienfu (鹿縣府), Anhwei. From the age of 7 to 9 years, I attended a primary school at Wuweilee, On leaving school, until I was 16, I helped my father on his farm. Harvests were poor and so I came to Shanghai in search of work. For two years I worked at the Sung Sing Cotton Mill, Yangtzepec. This mill closed down and I then went to the Doong Shing (同興) Cotton Mill at Linching Road. I remained at this mill until about a year ago and then resigned owing to eye trouble and earned my living as a hawker selling peanuts and turnips. I am still living at the Doong Shing Mill.

One week ago I began to attend the Oriental Morning and Evening School (东方晓场), No. 477 Holung Road to study elementary Chinese characters. I first knew of the school when I saw an advertising posted outside the school. Fees are only 20 cents a month.

At 6 p.m. on the 13th I left the school in company with a student named Ma (馬) and Wong (王) (2nd accused). When we reached Baikal Road and Lay Road corner Wong and Ma began to write on the wall. They told me to keep a look-out, which I did. A policeman appeared. Wong and Ma ran off and I was arrested.

I am not a communist and I do not belong to any political party.

My name is Wong Jih-ming, age 23 years. I was born at Shingning ( ). Kwangtung. My parents are still alive and run a clothing and toy shop in this town. At the age of six years, I began to attend the Shingning Middle School and studied there until May, 1934, when I graduated. I then went to Hankow and would have joined the Central Political University in that city, but I failed to pass the entrance examination in July. On August 4, I came to Shanghai. The following day I sat for the entrance examination to enable me to enter the Tsing Hua (清华大学) University at Peiping, but I failed again. From August to October, 1934 I lived in Avenue Haig (number forgotten). After this I lived at No. 67 Great Western Road (Chinese Territory) until the end of December. I receive approximately $200 a year from my father as living expenses.

Since January of this year I have been employed as a teacher of English at the Chung Chung Commercial School (忠信中學). Chow Ka Bu Road. I am now residing at No. 477 Holung Road.

I am not a communist, neither do I belong to any political party.

At about 9 p.m. on May 13 I was walking with a pupil named Low Hoo ( ) (Yee Tseng-soong 葉昇松), to whom I have given lessons at my home. Although I am his teacher I do not know his full name. I was walking in front of Low Hoo and did not know he had been arrested

My name is Tsou Tsze-bing, age 16, native of Hangchow, married, student of music, residing at No.477 Holung road. I was born at Penang where my father conducts a pawnshop. From age of six, I attended school at Penang for about nine years, after which I went to Shanghai, arriving here in April, 1934. In Shanghai I have been studying music at the Zung Yuen (正藍) Piano School, No.43 Yuen Chong Li, Route Vallon, and since recently also at the Yacobi School for Music, situated at Route des Rosiers. While in Shanghai I resided at various addresses until March, 1935 when I removed to No.477 Holung Road. At this address, there is a school named Oriental Morning & Evening School (東方夜校). I am occupying a room in that house together with my wife and my friend named Wong Jih-ming (王吉明), the 2nd accused whom I met in Shanghai about two months ago. Wong and another man named Teahng (蔡), whose address I do not know, are the proprietors of the school. Yes Teeng-sceng (易廷生), the 1st accused, used to call on Wong two or three times a week. I never talk to him and I therefore do not know where he lives and what his business is. At about 9 p.m. on May 13, Wong went out and returned at about half past ten. At this time I was already in bed. Soon afterwards the Police arrived and arrested Wong and I myself. At the time the Police arrived I was already asleep and therefore did not see who threw the books out of the
